I am told the definition of a pedestrian is "A guy with two cars and a wife and daughter that drive." I am not sure that is 100% accurate, but it could be. One way to avoid a predicament like this is to know about RTD buses. RTD has what they call "Briefcase Specials" that are designed to get the executive to his office in time for a full day. You don't have to be an executive to ride these buses; they even let me ride.

My wife, Martha, came downtown on the bus and had lunch with me the other day. She said she thought everyone should use the bus. I told her I thought that might be a little embarrassing and she said she couldn't see why anyone would be embarrassed. I said I didn't mean the people, I meant the RTD. She said I was wrong and that's where every discussion ends in my house. Just for the heck of it, every one of you nice folks ride the bus and let's see who is wrong, Martha or I.

How to save money without really trying could be the title of this paragraph. The RTD offers several ways to save your coin. If you are not familiar with them, just run down the list with me. First of all, RTD sells monthly passes, allowing unlimited one-zone riding. These passes sell for $12.00, with the Senior Citizen variety going for $9.00. The Shopper's Pass at 35¢ gives you ten (10) bus rides in the downtown Los Angeles Shopping Area. Senior Citizens discounts are good during the slack part of the day and evenings. The Student Privilege Card gives the students under 21 a 50 per cent reduction. In addition, the 5 cent transfer can save you 25 cents on many combination fares. All this, and they don't even call it a white sale.

Q. How would I get from the Del Amo Shopping Center to Hacienda Heights near West Covina? Mr. R.S.

A. I would suggest you take a snack along with you and catch the 102 line at Carson and Hawthorne Boulevard, change to the 5 line and ride to 6th and Broadway, L.A. Walk 3 blocks east to the new terminal and catch the 53-V to Hacienda Boulevard and Valley. You didn't say where in Hacienda Heights, so this is the best I can do.

Q. How would I get to Disneyland from Harbor General Hospital? J.C.

A. The Torrance 1 line will take you to Los Angeles where you can catch the 58 Disneyland bus from the terminal at 6th and Los Angeles Street. I'll send you a 58 timetable and a map.

Q. We have some friends visiting that want to go to Disneyland, how can we go by bus from Wilmington? Mrs. T.S.

Catch the RTD 86 line from Wilmington to Long Beach and the 124 line to Disneyland. Check your timetable I'm sending you for the last trip from Disneyland.

Q. How long does it take from Willowbrook to Glendale? I have a day time job in Glendale. Mrs. S.O.

A. Some schedules provide better connections than others, but I would allow an hour and a half, at least.

Brownies Keep Busy Schedule

Members of Torrance Brownie Troop 1194 have kept busy with many activities through the school year. The troop reached a membership of 20 girls in November when 11 new Brownies were invested. Those receiving their first pins in ceremonies at the Van Deene Avenue School auditorium were Rosemary Castro, Tina Hart,

Dayna Kim, Cindy Kraft, Brenda Krant, Jackie Lehr, Valerie Lonergan, Linda Sanders, Cheryl Santos, Melinda Tucker, and Tina Wallis. Also taking part in the program were Susan Barker, Sharon Woldhuis, Barbara Wallace, Sandra Gann, Debra Hanson, Tina Tucker, Debbie Rudolph, Pam Hainline, and

Cheryl Hamilton, representing the Brownie B. Sheila Barker, Cadet, led five scouting songs. The year's events also included a Christmas caroling fest at the Spastic Children's Foundation. After Christmas, the girls enjoyed an afternoon of roller skating at the Gar-

Hahn Seeks $400 Minimum Wage for County Workers

A minimum wage of $400 it represents," he stressed. He said the present county minimum wage of $355 a month is too low, adding "it's easy to forget" the lower salaried employee such as the laundry worker and hospital attendant.
